It's always nice to come home after a long journey. Tiny Fox and Great Boar finally reach their beloved apple tree. But black clouds are gathering on the horizon and danger is coming. Nobody will be safe. Will the friends stick together in this threatening situation?

Within the following pages of this book, you will discover the compelling and sometimes tragically sad life of Leona. You will follow her through her school days and her first heart break. You will be with her family at the family ranch when people take refuge there when their little town is ravaged by fire at the hands of the masochistic arsonist that had been the mayor of Duddleyville for several years. You will watch Leona as she endures unbearable beatings and verbal abuse at the hands of the man that raped her, and then convicted her that no man would want her after she had been with him, so he strong armed her into marrying him and continued his abusive treatment of her even after the birth of their son. Watch as Leona gathers the strength to leave to escape the abuse in the middle of a blizzard, taking her infant son with her. Follow her through the years of raising her son as a single woman in fifties, while living in a small rural town in the central plains of the U.S. Share her life as she suffers tragedy and grief at the death of her only sibling. Feel the heart wrenching sadness she feels at being disowned by her loving father, as well as the joy she experiences when she admits she has fallen in love with Leonard, the caretaker that discovered her and her son so long ago when she escaped her husband. Take a step back in the time and follow Leona through her life, and watch how she develops the strength to overcome unbearable challenges that life puts her path to true love and happiness.
