Book review: Rogaski, Ruth. Hygienic Modernity: Meanings ...

During the years under study, the Chinese term weisheng was translatable into a wide variety of words and phrases, including health, hygienic, physiology, nutrition, clean, medicine, the protection of internal vitality, sanitary science, the promotion of fertility, public health and even the conquest of death. As the term meant so many different things to different people at different times, Rogaski has opted to often leave the term untranslated throughout her analysis ‘ in order to suggest ...
