The book, Innovating Out Of Crisis, is divided in two halves, first being called "Fighting for Fujifilm" wherein he writes about how the core business was about to vanish due to technological revolutions taking place outside the organization and with the advent of digital photography, the ease of use, concerning to storage and retrieval of photographs by the end consumer was becoming easy and the camera rolls were to become obsolete soon.

Demand has collapsed for the old thing while new demand is popping up as we adapt, and the government is (effectively) subsidising innovation by providing unsecured loans and underwriting payroll (via JobKeeper). Put these together and you have the potential for (some) firms to emerge from the crisis stronger and more capable than they went in.
