The Shards of Erebus by Guy Haley: A awesome short story that shows what Erebus was up to prior to Calth, and how we came to have some of his awesome powers. This is the first time I can recall getting to really see into his head, and it was awesome. As much as he is a greag villain 5/5 Calth that was by Graham McNeill: The longest portion of the Mark of Calth anthology, and damn was it good.

Laurie Goulding was born in London, grew up in Burton-upon-Trent, and then experienced a slight regression in Winchester before finally settling in Nottingham. As the original director of Black Library TV, he would regularly make the authors uncomfortable by sticking a camera in their faces — now he achieves the same effect by wielding a red pen as a member of the editorial team.

Mark of Calth by Laurie Goulding. The Heresy reached Calth without warning. In just a few hours of betrayal and bloodshed, the proud warriors of the XIIIth Legion - Guilliman's own Ultramarines - were laid low by the treachery of their erstwhile brothers of the XVIIth. Now, as the planet is scoured by solar flares from the wounded Veridian star, the survivors must take the fight to the remaining Word Bearers and their foul allies, or face damnation in the gloomy shelters beneath the planet's ...
